

Copyright 2005

9/10/05

“Quittin’ Time”

(Music/Lyrics-J. Barranco)

Wings Of Dawn Music Publ. Co. ASCAP

Verse 1.

I wanna tell you all a story

About a real good friend of mine

He’s dressin’ sharp and sittin’ pretty

Success is all that’s on his mind

Success is all that’s on his mind

Verse 2.

But just last week he saw the doctor

He called me up and started cryin’

He said he wanted to meet Jesus

‘Cause he was scared of quittin’ time

Yes he was scared of quittin’ time

Chorus:

Every knee will bow every tongue confess

From the North and South to the East and West

He is King of Kings over all mankind

And we all wanna know him when it’s quittin’ time

Yes we all wanna know him when it’s quittin time

Verse 3.

Now I recall a certain lady
I use to watch her walk the streets
Right in the heart of New York City
While drugs and drink led to defeat
Yes drugs and drink led to defeat

Verse 4.

The years went by and she got older
I watched the men just pass her by
One day I saw her with a Bible
Alone and scared of quittin' time
Alone and scared of quittin' time

Repeat Chorus:

Verse 5.

Heed my word and listen closely
Read the book and watch for signs
We never know the final hour
So be prepared for quittin' time
Yes be prepared for quittin' time

Repeat Chorus: